

Ninety-five Theses for the 21st Century

Prepared by the Confessional Evangelical Lutheran Conference
1500807

What Is It?

- A list of 95 individual theses on various topics tied to today's religious and spiritual issues. The Confessional Evangelical Lutheran Conference (CELC) developed the booklet. The topics of the theses follow the organization of Luther's Small Catechism and confess Lutheran truths. The number 95 echoes Luther's Ninety-five Theses, but these new theses are contemporary statements of faith by modern confessional Lutherans.

About the Authors

- Martin Luther College Professor Tom Nass and Evangelical Lutheran Synod President John Moldstad co-chaired a committee of the CELC that created the theses. The theses were adopted by the recent convention of the CELC in Grimma, Germany. Professor Nass is also the author of End Times: Jesus is Coming Soon from the People's Bible Teachings series. President Moldstad is the author of Predestination: Chosen in Christ, also from the People's Bible Teachings series.
